

Ms. Jennifer's Week at a Peek-December 6th-December 10th

Reading Stories- We will review the stories "Great Leaders" and "Who are Government's Leaders?" and complete writing prompts with these stories. This week we will also be doing close reading for short stories to have additional practice with reading comprehension. "Captain Cat Keeps Her Cool", "Standing Up on Migrant Workers", "Kids for President", "Learn First! Then Vote!"

Decodable Text- We will be reviewing previously used decodable texts.

Spelling Words- We will be reviewing previously learned spelling words.

High Frequency Words- We will be reviewing previously learned high frequency words.

Vocabulary Words- We will be reviewing previously learned vocabulary words.

Writing Skills- Students will be working on reviewing subjects, predicates, and writing complete sentences.

Math- Students will be working with bar graphs and picture graphs.

Assessments: Students will be taking a short comprehension assessment for reading. There will not be a spelling test this week. Students will be taking the math case test on Thursday and Friday. There will not be a math timed test this week.